

Georgetown Law Library is seeking candidates for the Research Services Librarian position.

Under the direct supervision of the Head of Library Research Services, this position participates in the planning, development, implementation, and administration of the library's research services which supports the research needs of the law center, focusing on the individual scholarly and educational pursuits of the law faculty and law center administration. Typical projects include short-term and in-depth long-term projects ranging from case law and statutory research to annotated bibliographies, legislative history, and 50-state surveys.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. Positions open until filled. Full description, posting, and application process available on the Georgetown Career Opportunities Website (Posting - JR14794). If you have questions about the position, please contact lawlibcareers@georgetown.edu.

Georgetown University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer fully dedicated to achieving a diverse faculty and staff. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply and will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity and expression, and sexual orientation), disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.