CHAPTER HANDBOOK
AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

2017-18 EDITION

Introduction

Purpose

This Handbook is intended to provide SEAALL officers, committee chairs, and members an overview of the Chapter's operations. The Handbook should assist members assuming leadership positions to commence their work with information regarding the functions, duties, and responsibilities of each position as well as the practices of prior officers and committee chairs. The Handbook will also help to clarify instances of overlapping and intersecting responsibility, and to provide an idea of how the work one does may affect or be affected by the work of others.

The Handbook is not intended to create unbending rules of procedure or to stifle creativity. Hopefully, the Handbook will provide an outline of past practices to serve as a starting point. The vitality of any organization requires initiative and imagination.

Composition

Members of Local Arrangements committee are selected by the Local Arrangements chair and are generally located in close geographic proximity to the meeting site. If there is more than one participating law school, law firm, government institution, or other legal entity located near the meeting site, an effort should be made to include members from each institution on the committee.

Responsibilities

- Sets meeting date
- Creates and monitors budget
- Selects hotel and/or conference facility
- Handles all registration issues
- Arranges for social events and meals
- Creates Annual Meeting website
- Solicits exhibitors and sponsors

Planning Guidelines

Selecting Meeting Dates

- Held on Thursday evening through Saturday noon near April 1.
- Generally, no earlier than mid-March and no later than mid-April.
- The Institute occurs on Thursday morning and/or afternoon.
- Do not schedule over Easter or Passover weekend.
- The Local Arrangements chair should consult with the President when choosing meeting dates.
- Do not schedule at the same time as AALL Executive Board spring meeting.

Selecting and Reserving Hotel and/or Conference Facilities

Factors to consider when choosing a hotel

- General quality and location of hotel.
- Room rates.
- Capacity for each room.
  - Large banquet room for meals.
  - Space for exhibits and refreshment breaks.
  - Sufficient rooms for 3 concurrent meetings – 40-100 capacity.
- Available space for registration desk.
- Exhibitor facilities, possibility of having coffee breaks near exhibits.
- Meeting facilities and services available (reliable Internet access, lecterns, microphones, signage, water for speaker tables, tables, table skirts, electrical outlets).
- Availability of shuttle between airport and hotel.
- Prices and menus for meals or breaks.

- Parking availability and rates.
- Availability of site manager during the meeting.

Room Reservation Guidelines

- Reserve more rooms than traditionally needed and release 2-3 weeks before the meeting depending upon the contract with the hotel. Recommended:
  - Wednesday night - 40 rooms
  - Thursday & Friday nights - 100 rooms
  - Saturday night – 10-30 rooms, depending on whether optional excursions are planned for Saturday afternoon.
- If contract is required by hotel, send to President for signature.
- Be sure to reserve a complimentary hotel room for the AALL Board Member visitor and any other guest speakers. Most hotels will offer one free room night per a certain number of room reservations actually picked up by conference attendees.

Budget

- In consultation with the President, the committee determines the registration fee for the meeting and the Institute.
- Sets the registration fee at a level sufficient to cover all expenses yet still make meeting affordable for all members.
- Meeting income should equal or exceed meeting expenses.
- Recent annual chapter meetings have attracted 120-180 paid registrations.

For planning purposes, essential meeting expenses include:

- Registration expenses.
- Printing of final program.
- Badges, badge holders and ribbons.
- Folders and/or tote bags.
- Program related expenses.
- Audiovisual needs, laptops, signage.
- Expenses of non-SEAALL member speakers.
- Meals/Social Events
  - Opening reception (Thursday).
  - Breakfast (Friday & Saturday), breakfast buffets are recommended.
  - Lunch (Friday), local cuisine is recommended.
  - Coffee breaks (Friday a.m., p.m., Saturday a.m.).
  - Optional Social event (Friday evening).
  - Institute breakfast and lunch (Thursday).
  - Transportation costs if an event is not within walking distance.
  - Bartender services.
  - Optional considerations: music, security guards, cleaning services, table or event decorations.
- All of the above are good opportunities for sponsorships.
- A good rule of thumb in constructing the initial budget is to track food costs per capita with registration revenue and to use a target number in the middle of the anticipated attendee range. If you end up with fewer registrations than anticipated, your food costs should go down at the same rate as your revenue. Try to use sponsors' fixed revenue sums for fixed costs, such as room technology. Also, leave a cushion in the initial budget so that projected revenue exceeds projected costs by about $5k to account for the fact that the initial budget is based on projections and provide margin of error.

Exhibitors

- The Local Arrangements Committee is responsible for soliciting exhibitors. Obtain exhibitors list and contact information from prior year's Local Arrangement Committee to provide a starting point for solicitation efforts.
- Initial contact should be made in the summer or fall preceding the annual meeting.
- Exhibit hours are generally 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday and 8 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday morning.
- The exhibit area should be available for set up on Thursday afternoon and should have the capability to be secured during the evening hours.
- Exhibitors' fees recently have been set at $600. Future conferences should consider raising this amount to $650-$700.
- An exhibitor package includes one complimentary set of meal/event ticket, an exhibit table and access to an electrical outlet.
- A confirmation letter should be sent to the vendor requesting payment of the exhibit fee; shipping instructions; a contact at the hotel/conference facility for additional requests; size of table or booth space available; exhibits schedule including set-up and dismantle times.
- Exhibitors receive name badges on an alternate color paper and the same registration packet as other registrants.
- Don't forget to ask the Local Arrangements Committee for the upcoming meeting if a table in the Exhibit area is needed.
- AALL sends a representative and will generally want a free table.
- SEAALL's Placement and Community Service Project Committees may also request display space.

Sponsorships

- The Local Arrangements Committee solicits corporate sponsorships to underwrite the costs of meals, social functions, attendee bags or other giveaways. The President may assist if that seems more appropriate in any given year.
- Vendors who sponsor events must also pay the exhibitor fees if they choose to exhibit
- Contributors receive complimentary meal/function tickets at the following levels :
  - For a contribution of $500 - one set of tickets
  - For $501 - $1000 - two sets of tickets
  - For $1,001 - $2,000 - three sets of tickets
  - For $2,001 and more - four sets of tickets
- Acknowledge sponsorships in writing by letter, in the final program, in the Southeastern Law Librarian newsletter, orally at the business meeting, and with the placement of signs at the sponsored meal or event.

Meeting Publicity

- Maintain a booth during the preceding Annual Meeting with brochures, drawings, etc.

- Include additional veg options for speakers & exhibitors.
- 'Extra' meal tickets priced at the actual cost of the meal may be sold to accompanying guests
- Include microphone at head table during breakfast and lunch meals.

Opening Reception

- Food, drink and the opportunity for professional networking are more important factors than setting and entertainment.
- Alcohol is available through use of a cash bar.
- If fund-raising has been successful, consider serving only beer and wine under corporate sponsorship.
- Alternatively, may offer a ticket for one free drink.
- Estimate 10% of total attendance (registrants, speakers, vendor reps) will be no-shows.

Friday evening event

- This is an optional event if the budget allows.
- Traditionally, it is an opportunity for the host area to choose entertainment or surroundings that are special to the area.

SEAALL Annual Meeting Site Nomination Form

Nominations for sites are requested several years in advance to allow the SEAALL Executive Board and committees to plan adequately the local arrangements for annual meetings. The nomination must be made by a group willing to act as the local arrangements committee should the nomination be accepted.

The more information you are able to provide to the Executive Board about your proposed site, the better. Issues that come up every year include how much SEAALL pays for things like audio/visual (AV) equipment, WiFi availability (and how much it costs), room block minimums, and information regarding food and beverage commitments. While a formal budget is not required as part of the site nomination process, it is advisable that you consult with prior Local Arrangements committee chairs for expenditures incurred at prior annual meetings.

A call for nominations will occur after the Chapter Business Meeting & Reception at the AALL Annual Meeting, with a submission deadline of October 1.

The form is available on the SEAALL website at

Annual Committee Report

Program Committee - 1996-97

The Program Committee started early on its task of creating programming for the Annual Meeting to meet the needs of all of our members, whatever their area of specialization or type of library. The Committee first met at the Annual Meeting last spring in Austin to identify possible themes and program topics.

Shortly thereafter, committee members ranked their preferences and a list of desired programs was identified. Next, committee members selected the three programs they would most like to coordinate and moderate. Each committee member was allocated two programs from their lists for which they were to identify and locate speakers and refine program descriptions. Although the programs which will be held in Tallahassee differ somewhat from our original lists, it was essential that we begin this process early enough to allow time for unforeseen intervening events. Coordinators handle everything from obtaining biographical information and equipment needs from speakers to drafting a program description for insertion in the preliminary program. Service on the Program Committee is among the most demanding and rewarding available to SEAALL members.

We operated with the guiding principle that we should select SEAALL members as presenters whenever possible, for budgetary reasons. The Annual Meeting registration fee is a function of the local arrangements and program committees determining - in concert - a level at which programming and social activities can be provided at a reasonable cost to our members. Each year's Annual Meeting is in large part defined by its venue, both in terms of expenses and programming limitations. The SEAALL Handbook provides detailed information on dates and deadlines as well as more specific guidelines for future program committee chairs.

After a year of hard work, brainstorming and lots of creativity, persistence and flexibility from committee members, the fruits of our labors are 17 educational programs and a full day communications institute, coordinated by Kathy Crosslin of LEXIS- NEXIS. A total of 33 speakers will be sharing their expertise during the Annual Meeting. Without the energy and commitment of each of the following committee members these programs would not have been possible.

They will serve as coordinators and moderators at the Annual Meeting and deserve the gratitude of everyone who is in attendance at the Annual Meeting.
