From February 10 through February 12, 1983, the Chapter will meet in Lake Buena Vista, Florida at the Howard Johnson's Hotel. Mary Bourget at Ackerman, Senterfitt in Orlando is handling the local arrangements. Kay Todd and her Program Committee have developed an interesting program. There will be sessions on preservation and conservation, spatial considerations in library design, a history of law book publishing, municipal law, and UCC research. Former chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court Alan C. Sundberg has agreed to be the banquet speaker. Mark your calendars.

AALL is conducting a membership drive this year. Full participation by the Chapter could be beneficial to the Association and to the Southeastern Chapter. If you know someone who is not a member of AALL, please invite him or her to join. Christine Johnson will be leading our participation in this membership drive; contact her if you can lend assistance.

Finally I am seeking volunteers for two projects. The first concerns advertisements in the Chapter newsletter. In order to defray the costs of the newsletter, the Chapter is going to allow publishers to insert business card advertisements in the newsletter. I need someone to solicit advertisements, establish a price and work with the newsletter committee. Any volunteers?

Second, I intend to establish a special committee to look into the long term needs of the Chapter. The Committee will attempt, among other things, to answer the following:

- 1) What should be the concerns of SEAALL during the next 5 to 10 years? What goals should it target? What should be the condition of the Chapter at the end of this time period.
- 2) What long term activities should the Chapter undertake to meet these goals? What organizational changes should be instituted?

I would like to have a minimum of 5 or 6 members on this Committee. Any volunteers?

LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, at a meeting held in Chapel Hill on October 30, 1964 established a scholarship fund in honor of Miss Lucile Elliott, to be given at such times and in such amounts as funds are available.

Miss Lucile Elliot was one of our most honored and beloved members. She retired as Law Librarian at the University of North Carolina in 1955 after a distinguished career of service. The American Association of Law Libraries conferred upon her their highest honor when they elected her as their national president in 1953. Upon her retirement, she was made a life member of the Association. In large part, due to her efforts the Southeastern Chapter was organized. Appropriately, approval of our Chapter occurred during the 1954 National meeting, over which she presided. Miss Elliott's interest in encouraging young librarians to advance in the profession makes it most fitting that a fund was established, from which scholarships are given by this Chapter in honor of her memory.

Three scholarships will be awarded in the current fiscal year, 1982-1983, in the amount of $250.00 each. Any law librarian living in the Southeastern area may apply for a scholarship. However, only persons who have not received a Southeastern or A.A.L.L. grant during the previous five (5) years are eligible to win a Lucile Elliott Scholarship. The Scholarship is to be used for any purpose reasonably designed to improve one's professional knowledge and/or to advance one's career in law librarianship.

Although in recent years, most scholarships have been used to attend the A.A.L.L. or Southeastern annual meeting and/or institutes, applicants seeking financial support for other endeavors within the scope of the scholarship will be given equal consideration. Because of the scheduling of the Chapter's annual meeting in early 1983, this year only, an award may be used retrospectively to reimburse the winner for his-her travel expenses to the February Southeastern meeting. Librarians working in either county, court or law firm libraries are urged to apply.

An application form is attached. Additional copies may be photocopied or requested from the committee chairman. All applications must be received by the committee chairman by March 15, 1983.

This year's committee is composed of

- Gene Teitelbaum, University of Louisville Law Library, Chairman
- Laurel R. Clapp, Stamford University Law Library, Birmingham, Alabama
- Alcyone Hart, Holland and Knight, Tampa, Florida
- Brian Polley, Florida Supreme Court, Tallahassee, Florida

Legal Ethics & Professional Responsibility

A Survey of National and Louisiana Publications

by Patsy Brautigam. Reference Librarian. Law Library of Louisiana

The Law Library of Louisiana receives many inquiries from patrons needing information on ethics and professional responsibility in the area of law. We have in our collection several publications that provide this information on both local and national levels. In this article we would like to present some of these publications, along with a brief summary of their contents. We would also like to request input from other libraries who are aware of additional publications covering this topic. Many of the following items address themselves only to Louisiana ethics and professional responsibility, and we believe that readers would like to know of publications peculiar to other states as well. In addition, we would like to hear of other noteworthy ethics-related publications geared to the national level.

The National Reporter on Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility is a recent publication on this subject, and, when completed, will also be very comprehensive. This multi-volume set, edited by J. Myron Jacobstein (Stanford University) and Roy Mersky (University of Texas), began publication this year. Volume 1 contains the American Bar Association's Model Code of Professional Responsibility, the final draft of the Model Rules of Professional Conduct, and several discussion papers by various groups debating the pros and cons of the Model Code (e.g., Kutak commission, Commission on Professional Responsibility, Roscoe Pound-American Trial Lawyer's Foundation, New York State Bar Association, national Organization of Bar Counsel, and others). Future supplements to this service should include a transcript of the debate on the Code before the ABA House of Delegates, any additional reports or proposals concerning the Model Code, and a history of the Code's development. In addition, supplements will contain recent formal and informal ABA opinions.

Volumes 2, 2A, 2B, and 3 contain the codes of conduct and the formal and informal ethics opinions from individual state and local bar associations. Volume 4 contains full text opinions of ethics-related court cases litigated in courts of appeals and state supreme courts. Volume 5 contains original scholarly papers, a summary of current literature, book reviews, new items, and an index. Although not all of these features are included in the Reporter at this time, supplements will complete the proposed material.

A related publication in the area of professional responsibility is the Code of Professional Responsibility by State, published by the National Center for Professional Responsibility. This book compares the ABA Model Code of Professional Responsibility with the corresponding codes of individual states. Arrangement is by ABA disciplinary rule number, followed by comparable state rules. This format facilitates comparison of the national material with the local. Two tables are also included that list those states having disciplinary rules that differ from the ABA Model Code. Although this publication is very helpful, care must be taken when using it, for ABA ceased upkeep on this publication in the winter of 1982.

The National Center for Professional Responsibility has also issued Disciplinary Law and Procedure Research System. This two-volume publication, which covers the disciplinary aspects of professional responsibility, contains such features as suggested guidelines for rules of disciplinary enforcement, statistics on Disciplinary action against attorneys, suggested guidelines for the establishment and operation of a clients' security fund, a grievance referral list of lawyer disciplinary agencies, Model Federal Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement, and disciplinary law and procedure advance sheets.

The above-mentioned publications concentrate primarily on professional responsibility codes, but there also exist ethics opinions and codes of judicial conduct on both national and local levels. In addition to a Code of Judicial Conduct, ABA also publishes formal and informal ethics opinions. On a state level, the Louisiana Code of Judicial Conduct, adopted by the Louisiana Supreme Court in 1976, appears in the pocket part to Volume 8 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes. Louisiana ethics opinions, as well as the Louisiana Code of Professional Responsibility, are included in the Louisiana Attorney's Deskbook, published by the Louisiana State Bar Association. Cases relating to these codes of professional and judicial conduct may be found through Shepard's Professional and Judicial Conduct Citations, which covers formal and informal ethics opinions, the Code of Professional Responsibility, the Code of Judicial Conduct, and the Rules of Procedure of the Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility.

In addition to this primary material, the library contains treatise-type publications on professional responsibility. One of these is Maynard Pirsig's and Kenneth Kirwin's Professional Responsibility: Cases and Materials, 3rd edition. Another is Robert Aronson's and Donald Wickstein's Professional Responsibility in a Nutshell.

These are only some of the publications that address legal ethics and professional responsibility. We would like to include additional publications on this topic in future newsletters. If you are aware of any national publications not covered here or any publications peculiar to your own state, we would appreciate your sharing this information with us.

New Orleans Law Librarians Organize To Form New Chapter

This past summer the law librarians of the greater New Orleans area decided to organize themselves into a more official and effective group by applying for a charter as a chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries. This New Orleans Association of Law Libraries will be known as N.O.A.L.L. (an appropriate acronym for librarians everywhere). The New Orleans group, which has met unofficially for several years, felt that its members would be able to assemble more regularly and operate with more clout if they were officially a part of the national organization. There is an ever-increasing number of law librarians in the New Orleans area from a wide variety of law libraries. New Orleans has a large number of law firms, many of which have their own libraries. The Loyola and Tulane Law Schools are located there, as well as the Louisiana State Law Library, the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals Library, and several smaller court libraries. In addition, law librarians from Baton Rouge (Louisiana State University Law School Library and law firm libraries) have expressed an interest in the chapter.

The initial officers of the group are: President, Wes Cochran, Loyola Law School Library; Vice-President, Patsy Brautigam, Law Library of Louisiana; Secretary, Jo Ann Alleman, Simon, Peragine, Smith & Redfearn law firm; and Treasurer, Judy Najolia, Adams & Reese.

This group is looking forward to being an active medium through which its members can share ideas, complaints, collections, and moral support. Their most recent meeting featured Louisiana Supreme Court Justice Fred A. Blanche, Jr., who gave them a very informative and entertaining insight into the operations of the Louisiana Supreme Court.

N.O.A.L.L. welcomes members! If anyone is interested or has any questions he or she may contact Wes Cochran (504-865-3426) or Patsy Brautigam (504-568-5705).

FRIENDS OF THE LAW LIBRARY OF LOUISIANA ORGANIZE TO PROMOTE BETTER LAW LIBRARY SERVICE

A new enterprise which promises to bring about better law library service for Louisiana's entire legal community has been launched by the state law library. "The Friends of the Law Library of Louisiana," founded in May by a steering committee composed of attorneys, judges, state legislators, and judicial administrators, has begun its membership campaign.

It is the purpose of the "Friends" to facilitate communications between the staff of the law library and its clientele throughout the state. Thereby the staff may become better attuned to the needs of its patrons, and ideally, the patrons will assist through their ideas and contributions in bringing about the fulfillment of those needs. Particularly at this time of severe cutbacks in state appropriations, it is doubly important for the library to have the benefit of both of these resources.

The board of directors of the Friends has met to formulate plans for several undertakings:

- 1) A newsletter to be issued regularly to members, highlighting both new library acquisitions and services and important subject areas within the collection.
- 2) Contributions to enable the library to maintain the existing collection and add essential new titles. (The recent 4.4% budget cut for all state agencies chopped $16,000 from the library's book budget. This means not only a moratorium on new book orders, but cancellation of numerous subscriptions.)
- 3) Installation of Westlaw computerized legal research service, accessible not only to judges, but also to attorneys on a "pay-by-the minute" basis.
- 4) Spearheading the restoration and rebinding of the library's deteriorating and irreplaceable rare book collection.
- 5) Promoting the expansion and improvement of law library service throughout Louisiana by helping to establish or augment parish law libraries and shared computerized legal research installations.

Promotional efforts are underway to recruit members for the "Friends." The director of the library has addressed the annual meetings of the various state judges' associations and has written an article for the Louisiana Judicial Newsletter. A printed brochure and letter have been sent to the presidents of all of the local bar associations in the state, and an article has been submitted to the bar journal. The Friends are planning a wine and cheese party for members and "prospects" in the near future.

Wanted: Acquisitions Information

The Technical Services SIS Acquisitions Standing Committee is collecting materials and information concerning Acquisitions Departments in law libraries. After collecting the basic information, the Committee will develop a survey/questionnaire based on the material received. All information can be submitted anonymously. If you do not wish your library to be identified, all references to the name of the library can be deleted.

The following information is currently being collected: (Please include the information requested. The name in parentheses is the person who will be compiling the information.)
